THE ADAMS FAMILY *****

Authentic Adams Family records date from A.D. 871 down through feats of battle and statesmanship, early settling in America, with records of 1338 Adams Revolutionary Veterans, of Adams poetry, bibliography, etc., all data guaranteed.

The family of Adams or Adam (meaning red-Adamah or red earth) can claim the distinction of having the oldest individual name on record. The surnames of modern times are said to have originated during the Crusades in Palestine, the baptismal name alone having been before that time in common use among Christians. The chieftain of the crusading expeditions then assumed the names of the places whence they came or of the estates of which they are owners.

The common soldiers added the Christian names, and hence the surname of Christian names, with the addition of son, in Scotch MacAdam. The single letter s added to the baptismal name was only a variety and abridgment of the same mark of filiation and hence the surname compounded of Christian names with the s are also abundant. The artificers frequently assumed the name of their trades, which passed to their children and descended to their posterity.

Among the most conspicuous of the Adams family who migrated to America, were Henry, of Braintree, Mass., and Robert of Ipswich, Mass., both of whom it is said were descended from Lord John Ap Adam, son of Ap Adam, who came out of the Marches of Wales.

There is scarcely a county in England or Wales where the name of Adams is not found. There were other emigrants of the Adams family to America whose origin is not definitely known.

Thomas Adams, brother of Henry, of Braintree, Mass. was one of the grantees named in the charter of Charles I, 1629. He was at different times Alderman, High Sheriff and Lord Mayor of London. The names of Alexander, Charles, Christopher, Fernandini, Jeremy, Nathaniel, Philip, and Richard Adams are mentioned in Farmers Register as among the earliest settlers of Massachusetts.

1. John came to Plymouth in the ship Fortune, Nov. 11, 1634.
2. Henry with eight sons, settled at Mt. Walleston, 1621.
3. William of Cambridge, 1635 moved to Ipswich before 1642.
4. Robert, tailor, Ipswich 1635; Salem 1638; Newbury 1640.
5. Richard, Waymouth 1635, representative 1637.
6. Richard, bricklayer, Salem, came in the ship Abigail 1635.

7. Jeremy, Braintree 1632; Cambridge 1635; Hartford 1636.
8. Fernandini, shoemaker, from London 1637.
9. George, glover, Watertown before 1645, moved to Lexington 1664.
10. Christopher, mariner, Braintree 1645; Kittery, Me. before 1668.
Ralph, Elizabeth City, Va. 1623, Adams.
Ralph, James Island, Va. 1623.
Robert, Martians Hundred, 1634.
Richard, age 22, embarked for Virginia in the ship Globe, of London, Aug. 6, 1638.

The earliest record of the English branch of the Adams family is that of John Ap Adam, of Charlton Adam, in Somersetshire, who married Elizabeth, daughter of and heiress to John, Lord Gourny, Haviston and Tidenham, county of Gloucester, who was summoned to Parliament as Baron of the Realm 1296 to 1307.

In the upper part of a Gothic window on the southeast side of Tidenham church near Chopston, the name of Johes Ab Adam, 1310, and Arms, Argent on a cross gules five mullets or, of Lord Ap Adam are still to be found beautifully executed in stained glass of great thickness and in perfect preservation.

The Arms and Crest borne by the family are described as:
ARMS, Argent on a cross gules, five mullets or,
Crest, out of a ducal coronet a demi lion.
Motto, Loyal au Mort.

Ap Adam (1) came out of the Marches of Wales, Lords of the March were noblemen, who in the early ages inhabited and secured, the Marches of Wales and Scotland, ruling as if they were petty kings with their private laws, these were subsequently abolished.

SIR JOHN AP ADAM (2) Knight, descendent of Alfred the Great, King of England; Lord AP ADAM.

SIR THOMAS AP ADAM (3)
WILLIAM AP ADAM (4) SIR JOHN AP ADAM (5)
THOMAS AP ADAM (6) SIR JOHN AP ADAMS (7) Knight.
SIR JOHN AP ADAM (8) ALIS ADAMS.
ROGER ADAMS (9) THOMAS (10) JOHN (11).
JOHN (12) NICHOLAS (13) RICHARD (14).

ROBERT (15) supposed to be the immediate progenitor of Robert, settled in Newburyport, Mass, 1640.

HENRY (16) of Braintree, Mass. emigrated to New England in 1630, in the ship Fortune, and in Feb. 1641 was granted 40 acres of land by Boston, which Braintree was a part. He brought with him eight sons, and was the great-great grandfather of John Adams, second president of the United States, who at Braintree (words "was buried" probably were omitted here by Iva accidentally--AMcD) with the following inscription:

"In memory of Henry Adams, who took his flight from the Dragon of persecution in Devonshire, England and lighted with eight sons near Mount Wallaston. One of the sons returned to England and after taking time to explore the country, four moved to Medfield and neighboring towns, two to Chelmsford.

"Only one, Joseph (who lies here at his left hand) remained here, who was an original proprietor in the township of Braintree 1639.

"This stone and several others have been placed in this yard by a great-grandson from veneration of the piety, humility and sympathy, prudence, patience, temperance, frugality, industry, and perseverance of his ancestors, in hope of recommending an emulation of their virtues to their posterity."

The children of Henry of Braintree were:

1. HENRY, born 1604, settled at Medfield, Mass. 2. THOMAS, born in England 1612, settled at Chelmsford, Mass. 3. SAMUEL, born 1617, settled at Chelmsford, Mass., died 1666. 4. JONATHAN, born 1619, settled at Medfield, married (1) Elizabeth, (2) Mary. 5. PETER, born 1632 (this figure probably should be 1622--AMcD), settled at Medfield. 6. JOHN, born 1624, settled at Concord, afterwards West Cambridge. 7. JOSEPH of Braintree, born 1626, freman (freeman-?) 1655, Dec. 1694. His monument is at Quincy in the family burial place and is that referred to in the inscription on his father's tombstone (who lies here at the left hand). 8. EDWARD, born 1630, settled at Medfield, died 1716. 9. URSULA, married in her father's will.

HENRY, son of Henry of Braintree, had five sons from which the family of President John Adams, our family and others descended. President Roosevelt's mother descended from the family of Joseph.

(NOTE BY AUDREA MCDOWELL--ANYONE USING THIS GENEALOGY SHOULD REALIZE THAT THIS IS AN IMPORTANT GAP BETWEEN THE LINES TRACED BEFORE AND AFTER THIS POINT. IT SHOULD BE ESTABLISHED WHICH SON OUR BRANCH OF THE FAMILY IS DESCENDED FROM, IF ANY, BEFORE IT IS TAKEN FOR GRANTED THAT OUR ADAMS FAMILY IS, IN FACT, DESCENDED FROM HENRY OF BRAINTREE AT ALL. THIS INFORMATION MAY HAVE BEEN INCLUDED IN REUBEN ADAMS' PAPERS, BUT IT WAS NOT COPIED BY IVA ADAMS, AND THEREFORE CANNOT BE ASSUMED TO BE ACCURATE WITHOUT FURTHER INVESTIGATION.)

Our family left Massachusetts in 1770 in the person of Gilbert Adams who migrated to Dutchess County, New York.

GILBERT ADAMS served in the French and Indian War, also in the Revolutionary War under Washington. Died Sept. 1826.

PHILIP ADAMS, son of Gilbert, was born Oct. 1776 in Dutchess County, New York, and migrated to Ohio in the fall of 1824 and settled in Warren County near Cincinnati, where he lived until Dec. 1832, when he moved to Miami County near Pique (this may be Piqua--AMcD). He died in 1875 leaving his wife, Pheba, who lived to be about 90 years old. Their children were Sarles Travers, Gilbert, Clarke, John Quincy, Daniel, Martha, Eliza, Jane, Sarah.

SARLES TRAVERS ADAMS was born in Dutchess County, New York, May 21, 1812. He purchased land in Miami Co. (Ohio) in 1825.
